

2016 TEEN POETRY CONTEST

LINE x LINE

Teens, grades 6-12, help us celebrate National Poetry Month with a Teen Poetry Contest. All entries must be submitted to the Springfield Public Library before 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 30, 2016.

RULES:

1. This contest is open to students currently in grades 6 to 12.
2. Each person may submit only one poem.
3. Poems must have no more than 40 lines.
4. Entries must be an unpublished, original poem, and may not have been submitted to any previous contest.
5. Entries must have been created from May 2015-April 2016.
6. The text of all poems must be submitted in print. The text must be typed, single-sided, double-spaced on plain 8.5" x 11" paper. Good spelling and grammar are not required, but they will help!
7. Poems will not be returned. Please keep a copy of your work.
8. An official entry form must be submitted with each entry.
9. You may also submit a digital version of your poem by emailing it to lgustavson@springfield-or.gov and put yourlastname_poem in the subject line.
10. The library reserves the right to reject any entry it deems inappropriate.

DEADLINE:

Your entry form and poem must be received by mail, email or hand delivered to the Springfield Public Library before 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 30, 2016.

WINNERS:

Winning poems will be displayed in the library and on the library's website at <http://wheremindsgrow.org/teens.html>

PRIZES:

A first prize and two honorable mentions will be awarded for entries in two age categories: grades 6-8 and grades 9-12.

First prize: $25.00 gift certificate

Honorable mention: literary gift basket

Age categories and the number of prizes awarded may change depending on the number of entries submitted.
